As part of the Canada's Next Great Prime Minister contest, contestants are asked to hold an event in their community to highlight a major issue important to them. I'm Chris Erl, an 18 year old Political Science and Sociology student at McMaster University and I am a contestant in this year's edition of the Canada's Next Great Prime Minister contest. The issue important to me is urban sprawl and community development. I wish to make a presentation to the Economic Development and Planning committee outlining the social, political and economic costs of sprawl and what can be done to stop it from a student's perspective. Any attempts to facilitate my request before December 20th would be much appreciated. I can be contacted at 905-807-1851 or at 905-385-3878. Thank You, Chris Erl
