(f) PUBLIC HEARINGS/DELEGATIONS

(i) Mike Ryan, Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Correctional Services Canada, respecting the Removal of Correctional Staff from the Federal Halfway House in Downtown Hamilton (No Copy) (Item 6.1)

Mike Ryan, Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Institutional Operations, Ontario Region, and David Pisapio, District Director, Correctional Service Canada, appeared before the Committee to respond to questions with respect to the Federal Halfway House in Downtown Hamilton.

Messrs. Ryan and Pisapio provided some background information and addressed some of the issues expressed in the Council motion. Their comments included, but were not limited to, the following:

- How Correctional Service Canada operates in the community and other areas across the country
- Change to remove officers will be replaced with one re-integration worker who will be doing much of the work that was being done by the correctional officers
- Will be looking at amending contract with the Corps of Commissionaires to take up some of the duties of the officers
- Parole officers will be trained
- Since 2008, a number of cities have been funded with MOU’s for the services of one police officer who is stationed behind the CCC and who responds to certain issues at the CCC; have close relationship with Police Service in an effort to pre-empt incidents
- In terms of the facility in Hamilton, Corrections Canada has given notice to the Salvation Army that they will not be renewing their lease next year; Corrections Canada is in negotiations with other partners in Ontario to relocate elsewhere
- Will be pleased to return in April/May 2014 to provide more information that cannot be disclosed at this time
- Facility on York Blvd. has a maximum of 25 offenders; all were federally-sentenced (2 years or more), and served time for all different offences (from property, to sex to homicide); all have release certificates issued by the Parole Board of Canada and have been released by law, having served their sentence
• Facility on York Blvd. is not a jail, but a release facility; 25 individuals have access to the community; each one has an individual correction plan which determines the types of programs they will be involved in; each has a program officer assigned that can delivery certain types of programs (e.g., substance abuse, violence prevention) based on individual need.

The presentation from Mike Ryan and David Pisapio respecting the “Removal of Correctional Staff from the Federal Halfway House in Downtown Hamilton” was received.

See Item 4 for the disposition of this matter.

Connie Mallory, Chief Inspector with the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, appeared before the Committee to speak in support of Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo and the work that they do. Ms. Mallory’s comments included, but were not limited to, the following:

• Spoke to the professionalism of the operators, who are extremely vital to the operations of the OSPCA; they have helped identify species, determine needs of animals, assisted with sheltering and rehoming participating in investigations as experts, when needed, have participated in removal of animals that may be dangerous and a safety risk
• Emphasized that no matter how strong the by-laws are, there will always be residents that keep exotic reptiles and poisonous animals
• Have found that staff at Little Ray’s are excellent educators who ensure that there is no impulsive purchasing; they take the time to ensure that people know what the responsible needs are of the animals; gives people the opportunity to see what type of care animals require before purchasing elsewhere i.e., pet store
• Good policies and procedures in place for safe handling of animals; also can offer assistance to first responders who come across a situation to help identify and safely transport and relocate animals
• Spoke to what would happen to animals once owners no longer want them and if this facility was not in existence; high probability that they would be released.

The presentation from Connie Mallory, speaking in support of Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo, was received.
(ix) Request from Tom Mason, on behalf of Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo (Item 4.6)

Tom Mason appeared before the Committee to speak on behalf of Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo. Mr. Mason’s comments included, but were not limited to, the following:

- Recently-retired curator of Birds and Invertebrates at the Toronto Zoo
- Have been involved in the wild and exotic pet trade and zoo world for 50 and 40 years respectively
- Asked by Paul Goulet to inspect the Hamilton facility in August 2013 and found that the facility would meet the standards of CAZA
- Have inspected and worked for accredited institutes in Ontario.

(i) MOTIONS

(i) Question to Electors on the 2014 Municipal Election Ballot respecting Fluoridation of Water Supply (Item 10.1)

That the following motion was deferred to the December 4, 2013 meeting of the General Issues Committee:
(a) That Council pass a by-law to submit the following question to the electors of the City of Hamilton at the October 27, 2014 Municipal Election:

“How are you in favour of continuing fluoridation of the public water supply of the City of Hamilton?”;

(b) That the question be submitted in accordance with the Fluoridation Act and Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

(j) NOTICES OF MOTION

Councillor L. Ferguson introduced the following Notice of Motion:

(i) Spring Valley Arena, Ancaster – Funding for Renovation/Construction of Dressing Rooms

That $400,000 of the $1 million of the unallocated funds in the 2014 discretionary capital budget presented at the October 18, 2013 Capital Budget Workshop General Issues Committee meeting be approved to renovate and construct the dressing rooms at Spring Valley Arena in Ancaster.

Councillor B. McHattie introduced the following Notice of Motion:

(ii) City of Hamilton Lawsuit against the Federal Government respecting the Red Hill Valley Parkway

Whereas the City of Hamilton has been pursuing a lawsuit against the Canadian federal government since 2003 in relation to their actions in the Red Hill Parkway project;

And Whereas it is estimated that the City has spent in excess of $2 million on the lawsuit, with no concrete results;

And Whereas a recent court decision by Superior Court Justice P.B. Hambly found the City of Hamilton’s case to be unfounded.

Therefore Be It Resolved:

That the City of Hamilton immediately drop the lawsuit against the Federal government in the Red Hill Parkway case.
