Dear Vanessa,

I am writing about the proposed updated Animal By-Law for Hamilton.
I am in total agreement that there not be a limit on pets per household as long as the animals are properly cared for & do not disturb other people in the neighborhood.
I do not have chickens, but they would pose no problem for me as long as they were kept clean in their environment & their coop somewhat so as not to encourage chicken farms.

Sincerely,
Judy Harrison