CEREMONIAL ACTIVITIES/ANNOUNCEMENTS

3.1 Heroes on Duty Presentation

The Mayor welcomed Elizabeth Blenkarn and Faye Lyons, Government Relations Specialist of CAA South Central Ontario, to join him at the podium.

Elizabeth Blenkarn was volunteering as a bus patroller when she came to the aid of a kindergarten student who fell and cut his head on a metal bracket. She administered first aid by applying direct pressure to the boy’s cut. She then sat and comforted him to keep him calm as the bus driver called for help. Elizabeth received official recognition from CAA.

The Mayor presented Elizabeth with a certificate; thanked her for her hard work, commitment and dedication; and congratulated her for being CAA’s School Safety Patroller of 2008.
3.2 Excellence in Property Awards

The Excellence in Property Awards honours individual B.I.A. members for the vital contribution they make to the community through the beautification and continual upkeep of their properties. The seven participating B.I.A.s nominated two properties within their boundaries based on criteria established by a panel of judges. The judges—Rick Lintack, George Dark, and Mike Piczak—then had to choose one winner.

The Mayor called Rick Lintack to the podium and presented him with a gift. As George Dark and Mike Piczak were unavailable to attend, the Mayor advised that he would ensure that they received their gifts as well.

The Mayor announced the seven winners: Greta’s Flair (Julie DeNardi), Terraces on King East (Rudi Spallacci), Gray’s Florist (Dana Thurley), B-Bop Hair Shop (Cecil Stewart), Creative Works Studio (Sylvia Simpson), Barton Village Apartments (Roopshand Saw), and The London Tap House (Jonathan Brock).

The Mayor then announced Terraces on King East (Rudi Spallacci) as the overall award winner in the City of Hamilton.
