Monthly Transit Pass Federal Tax Credit

The transit pass credit allows individuals to claim the cost of passes for commuting on buses. To claim this credit on your income tax, you must save your expired monthly passes and your official receipts from their purchase. HSR authorized Ticket and Pass vendors will issue a receipt when asked at the time of purchase. You won't need to submit any documentation when you file your return, but you must keep it in case the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) asks for it when verifying your claim.
