(g) PUBLIC HEARINGS AND DELEGATIONS

(i) Delegation by Dean Collett, respecting the Hess Village Paid Duty Program (Item 6.1)

Dean Collett addressed the Committee respecting the Hess Village Paid Duty Program. Mr. Collett is asking that the City help to relieve some of the costs associated with the Hess Village Paid Duty Program which was initially established to be a cooperative program between the City and the establishments in the Hess Village Entertainment District. He expressed that the growth of the Paid Duty Program has been doubled in twelve years from $50,000 to over $100,000 a year and that there is a large administration fee on these costs that cost approximately $20,000 a year.

Councillor’s asked questions of the delegate relating, but not limited to:
- The importance of the entertainment district;
- The current billing system for the Paid Duty program; and
- How the Paid Duty Program works and why ten Police Officers are needed.

Councillor Pearson asked staff to provide a chronological timeline of the changes to the paid duty program, starting with its initiation.

(Pearson/Johnson)
That the delegation by Dean Collett, respecting the Hess Village Paid Duty Program, be received.

CARRIED

Councillor’s asked questions of the delegate relating, but not limited to:
- The definition of an entertainment district;
- The importance of this district to the downtown and attracting young professionals;
- If Hess Village is included in the downtown revitalization initiatives;
- If the turn over of businesses in Hess Village is healthy for the area;
• Who determines the number of officers needed in the area;

(Clark/Collins)
That the correspondence from Jim Skarrat, respecting the Hess Village Paid Duty Program, be received.

CARRIED

(Farr/Clark)
WHEREAS it is regular practice for staff to review some by-laws after a sufficient duration to better understand our by-laws impact and effectiveness;

WHEREAS Hess Village Entertainment District is deemed an important economic player that helps encourage young professionals to live and work in Hamilton’s Downtown and that employees 500 full and part time workers and brings in a maximum 10 million;

WHEREAS the Hess Village merchants who sell alcohol are billed an average Paid Duty annual sum of 130 Thousand Dollars;

Whereas the existing 15% administration fee appears to be charged in every case, regardless of amount or complexity of work involved;

WHEREAS the Paid Duty program in Hess Village was initiated by the merchants themselves in 2000 and was originally divided between the merchants and HPS in a cooperative effort and on a 50/50 basis and by the end of that first season a total of 8 PD Officers were split. The program now sees ten PD Officers and is now fully funded by the merchants;

WHEREAS Paid Duty Officers on shift in Hess Village regularly issue fines, tickets and at times lay charges to patrons of Hess Village;

WHEREAS, Hamilton Police Services representatives recently suggested to Hess Village Merchants responsible for paying into the Paid Duty program that if they wanted to reduce the escalating amounts billed to them, they would have to approach the City of Hamilton;

WHEREAS it is clear that some businesses directly benefit and sometimes contribute to the crowds associated with the Entertainment District, particularly after hours and not limited to those within the defined boundaries, but also those directly across the street from those defined boundaries who choose too stay open late (although do not serve alcohol) as a direct result of the patrons exodus;
WHEREAS the current system of Paid Duty billing timing and delivery of bills to Hess Village Merchants may at some times appear to be haphazard and inconsistent and that on occasion, it is has been claimed that after one or two days upon receipt of a bill, the bill has gone to a collection agency;

WHEREAS the Ward Councillor has made a concerted effort to address the matter of Paid Duty Police Billing in Hess Village for nearly one year;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that staff from the Urban Renewal office:

(a) Review the Hess Village Paid Duty By-law in an effort to measure it’s impact and effectiveness;

(b) Assist Hamilton Police Services Administration staff in developing a consistent billing delivery system with a reasonable payment period and seek out efficiencies in administration fee billing with consideration to the reoccurring nature of the bills submitted;

(c) Report back on the reasons for the demise of the cost sharing model with respect to Paid Duty Enforcement and investigate ways in which to bring it back without compromising the amount of Paid Duty Officers HPS feels appropriate for Hess Village;

(d) Report back on the total cost to Hess Village Merchant to Paid Duty Police in the 2011 season;

(e) Determine and report back on the intake and or revenue generated from tickets, fines and charges issued to patrons of Hess Village during the Paid Duty Enforcement Periods and Municipal Law Enforcement in Hess Village;

(f) In the event of fine or ticket revenue that exceeds costs, explore the feasibility of offsetting the Paid Duty Costs with portions of this excess. While maintaining the cost recovery model, where applicable;

(g) Determine the businesses that do not serve alcohol, but are open late in an effort profit from the exodus of Hess Village patrons and measure what if any Paid Duty activity is required in the area of these establishments;

(h) Determine the economic spin-off or benefits directly associated with the existence of an economically viable Hess Village and that staff report back within a reasonable time period that allows for Council
consideration and possible implementation of new model of Paid Duty Enforcement with consideration to the original shared cost model that in no way compromises Hamilton Police Services determined requirements and do so before the inception of the 2012 season;

(i) That staff include in their report the information from the 2009 report on the PD issue, and share all information with the HPS Board moving forward.
