Both the Interim Tax Levy and Temporary Borrowing By-laws ensure that the City has access to a continuing cash flow to fund operations until a final 2010 budget has been approved.

Alternatives for Consideration – Not Applicable

Vision: To be the best place in Canada to raise a child, promote innovation, engage citizens and provide diverse economic opportunities.
Values: Honesty, Accountability, Innovation, Leadership, Respect, Excellence, Teamwork
FINANCIAL / STAFFING / LEGAL IMPLICATIONS (for Recommendation(s) only)

Financial: The City would have to pay negotiated interest payments should it have to borrow funds under the Temporary Borrowing By-law.

Staffing: No implications.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND (Chronology of events)

Appendix “A” to report FCS10002 is a Temporary Borrowing By-law allowing the City to ensure that it has access to adequate cash flow to meet operating commitments. The allowable percentages to borrow, as set out in Section 407 of the Municipal Act, 2001, are 50% of estimated revenues prior to September 30th and 25% afterwards. It is important to note that actual borrowings under this provision have historically been very limited in both magnitude and duration. The most recent case of the City taking advantage of this provision was in late 1998 and 1999 under the Current Value Assessment conversion, when the Province was adjusting the rules and regulations for taxation of commercial and industrial properties, which held up final tax bills to August and September, respectively.

Appendix “B” of report FCS10002 is an Interim Tax Levy By-law. In the course of its operations, before a final budget has been approved, the City incurs expenses on a regular basis. These expenses, including such items as employee wages, material expenditures and School Board tax payments, would require significant temporary borrowing without the ability to levy taxes in advance of the final tax bills being issued. Section 317 of the Municipal Act, 2001 permits the levy of up to 50% of the prior year’s taxes (annualized for adjustments such as supplementary taxes or tax appeals).

The Interim Tax Levy By-law provides the formal mechanism whereby Council can affect this pre-levy. The due dates of the instalments for the Interim Levy are proposed to be the last working days of February and April, set at March 1st and April 30th, 2010. As February 28 falls on a Sunday this year, the February instalment due date is being pushed back to March 1 to adequately allow time to mail the tax bills within the 21 day notice period under the Municipal Act. This is consistent with those applied in prior years.

AND WHEREAS Section 317 of The Municipal Act, also authorizes a Municipal Council, by by-law, to adjust the interim taxes on a property if the Council is of the opinion that the Interim Levy on a property is too high or too low in relation to its estimate of the total taxes which will be levied on the property in 2010;
