Reason(s) for delegation request: * In light of the decision to be made concerning the potential location of a new stadium, it is imperative for Hamilton City Council support the interests of the citizens of Hamilton. I am a young professional working at a doctoral program in Toronto, a football fan, and a prominent member of the independent arts community who has chosen to live in this city because of the potential that Hamilton represents. However, it is clear to me that without proper leadership, the interests and political agency of the citizens of Hamilton will continue to be marginalised by external forces. I am a concerned citizen of this city, and I wish to address council to make my concerns public.
