I have monitored the events of the West harbour development since the Lax property was developed. The hot topic of debate is now the new site for a new stadium. I have no proof other than the medias portrayal of behaviour amongst the parties that were involved. Clearly right from the onset there were hidden forces manipulating the process. If our system of approvals is dictated by the few why do we bother with any due processes? The collusion and underhanded dealings are glaring at this point and the whole situation is a revelation. The community is but a pawn in a struggle for private wealth that is created and or maintained by the working class. I was hoping that our government was just. This process suggests otherwise. The forced decision for the east mountain is a time to mourn not celebrate with our spirit extinguished good luck with hope. You will need it.
